

The Church of the Redeemer & Threshold Support Circle
2016 Film & Speaker Series: Let's Talk About It

A forum and safe space for difficult and enlightening conversations about end-of-life and related health issues affecting our community.

FREE and OPEN to the public at The Church of the Redeemer

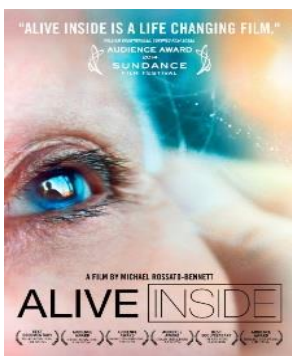

Sunday, April 24 • 4:00 – 6:00 PM

Consider the Conversation: A Documentary on a Taboo Subject

Facilitator: Chaplain J. Joseph Hart, Director of Spiritual Support Services
Executive Director, GBMC Center for Spiritual Support Training

"A remarkable film that opens the floodgates of thought and conversation on this most difficult and often taboo subject. I encourage everyone to watch this important film including physicians, healthcare workers, patients and families."

- James Roberts, M.D., Medical Director, Mayo Clinic Health System-Home Health & Hospice

Sunday, May 15 • 4:00 – 6:00 PM

Alive Inside

Facilitator: Sarah Hoover, DMA, Johns Hopkins Peabody Institute
Special Assistant to the Dean for Innovation,
Interdisciplinary Partnerships, and Community Initiatives

A joyous cinematic exploration of music's capacity to reawaken our souls and uncover the deepest parts of our humanity. Filmmaker Michael Rossato Bennett chronicles the experiences of those with memory loss and other limiting illnesses who have been revitalized through the simple experience of listening to music.

Sunday, June 12 • 3:00 – 5:00 PM

Where Stigma Ends, Healing Begins

Facilitator: Peter Bruun, Founder/Director, New Day Campaign

In February 2014, Peter Bruun wrote a post on his blog two weeks after he and his family suffered an unthinkable tragedy – the death of his oldest daughter, Elisif, from a heroin overdose. Peter titled the post "A New Day" and began the work of the New Day Campaign, a Baltimore-based initiative that uses art to challenge the stigma associated with mental illness and addiction. Come experience the power of an audio-video creation of "Elisif's Story" and join the conversation.

For more information, contact The Rev. Caroline Stewart

cstewart@redeemeronline.com

